When I founded The Burks Companies in 1991, we started with a clear mission: to provide unsurpassed client service and proactive solutions at all levels in the facilities management environment. For more than two decades, we have honored that mission, which I firmly believe is critical to maintaining The Burks Companies' sterling reputation.

As the company embarked upon its third decade of service, I challenged our leadership team to set aggressive growth goals. I have every confidence in our employees to meet this challenge and to achieve our goals for growth while remaining customer-focused and committed to quality and integrity. As we continue to strive toward achieving these goals for our company, a simple call-to-action that sums up our mindset has bolstered our efforts: Performance is Everything!
